Suggestions for things to do on Brac

Brac is the best connected island - to the mainland and to the Dalmatian archipelago - a daily speed boat runs from Milna on Brac to Hvar, Korcula, Mljet and Dubrovnik.

From Bol, it is an easy boat journey to Jelsa on Hvar - taxi boats, excursions or private boat rentals are plentiful from the Bol harbor.

Ferries go regularly from Supetar to Split and from Sumartin on the southeast side of Brac to Makarska on the mainland.

Private speed boats and sail boats are a great day trip from Milna around Brac, to the Pakleni islands, Vis, Hvar or Solta islands. Or spend a romantic night on the town in Hvar town - a taxi boat will take you in the evening from Milna and return in the wee hours.

Spend an evening in Hvar or Split - speed boat from Milna goes on Tuesdays & Thursdays at 19:00, returning at 11:00.

Visit the stone masons & sculptors, 16th century Blaca Monastery & Dragon's cave. The famous "Golden Horn" beach is in Bol. Senjkovic Winery wine tasting & pairing is a great experience. Be sure to reserve in advance, they get very busy.

Brac also has great biking and hiking trails with accurate maps and good signage for exploring on your own. The dirt road along the sea from Milna along the south side of the island is great for exploring by bike or foot.

Island Cuisine

Some Dalmatian Specialties:

Cevapcici (served everywhere), the traditional meat sausage (usually a mixture of lamb and beef), which is delicious cooked on the outdoor grill.

Prsut - Croatian Proscuitto

Sladoled - ice cream

Peka - Peka is a Dalmatian dish, usually made with Brac Lamb, Octopus or sometimes fish with vegetables, potatoes, onions, olive oil, wine and local herbs (usually Rosemary). It is cooked in a metal baking dish with a heavy rounded lid under coals in the outdoor stone oven.

Hobotnica Salad - cold Octopus salad - delicious.

Dalmatian cakes & pastries - the women are famous for their baking - particularly those made with walnut flours and pastes

Pizza - Gajeta makes great pizza - European style - light and fresh. Ask for it well-done, otherwise the crust can be a little under-done.

Palacinka is translated as pancakes, but are really crepes, usually with chocolate, delicious sweet walnut paste, ice cream or jam. We like to mix chocolate, walnut and ice cream.

Torta Hrapocusa is a specialty cake, originally from Dol. It is made with almond flour & caramelized walnut and some secret ingredients, my favorite local desert.

(pick up by boat Duboka & Osibova)

You can make reservations when you are here. A must for Senjkovic, Bokuncin, Barba Luka, Jako Vino, Galicia, Osam & Gajeta.

If you want lamb on the spit, at Kopacina, then a call ahead is also a good idea.

Any time you want to order Peka, it must be ordered the day before. I suggest trying the Octopus Peka, very special.

Summary of Favorite Brac Restaurants

Here is a list of restaurants we like - Dobar tek (Bon Appetit).

Barba Luka - this restaurant is in Lucice Bay. They will pick you up by boat at your swimming platform. It is a little expensive, but the fish is great and it is a unique experience.

Gajeta Restaurant - on the harbor in Milna is the best restaurant in town - very good food and the spot is unbeatable. Wonderful to watch the sail boats come and go.

Plage Restaurant - at the Illyrian Resort is at the entrance to Milna Harbor. The location is unbeatable. The terrace overlooks the water and the town beach. A great place to while away the hours.

Terrace Ciccio - is hidden away along the coast near Bol - a family restaurant on the coast, high above a very pretty beach. It is a truly authentic experience and actually at the family home.

The Fish House - in Bol is right on a very nice beach. The food is good Dalmatian food. The spot is fantastic. The food is good and the service is bad. But if you don't mind slow service, it is a great place to relax and the kids can enjoy the beach where you can see them.

Kopacina Restaurant - in the center of the island (about 20 minutes drive from the villa), is a totally Brac experience for Brac Lamb. They also have very good grilled fish (fresh) and grilled steaks. There is always a lamb on the spit (a whole lamb). They also have every other sort of lamb ;-).

Senjkovic Winery - Senjkovic winery is a very small family winery and they prepare a fabulous sampling of specialties, which amounts to a whole supper by the time you are done. A very special experience.

Brachia Restaurant - in the main square of Sumartin is quaint and unusual with olive oil tasting, great souvenirs made of olive wood & a variety of delicacies you can buy as well as taste. Almost all the dishes are made with olive oil, even the ice cream!

Ziza Restaurant - is an agro-restaurant (everything produced by the family), about 1/2 hour drive from the villa. A good place to stop if you are spending the day visiting the island. The view is beautiful - over the fields towards Split. The terrace very pleasant and cool.

Bokuncin Restaurant - in Sutivan, has great food, is right on the water and Sutivan is a really pretty little village with great beaches, worth an outing to see.

Osam Restaurant - in Supetar Harbor, is in the Osam Boutique Hotel. It has a pretty patio overlooking the harbor and sea - a nice way to while away the afternoon or for a romantic evening. Very good menu specializing in beef, salads and local wines.

Konoba Lukin - in Supetar Harbor, is a traditional Konoba with very good food and great location.

Galicia Restaurant - in the back roads of Milna Harbor, is a good mix of traditional cuisine with new style. The meat and desserts are particularly good. The terrace is pleasant in the evenings, although there is limited view.
